GET 20% OFF REGISTRATION WITH VIP CODE EXHINVITE

EDUCATIONAL CONTENT

Conference sessions cover practical information on incident prevention and response challenges specific to inland waterways. You will gain valuable insights on topics specific to response in the inland environment from multiple perspectives, including regulators, industry professionals, consultants and environmental experts.

NETWORKING

CLEAN WATERWAYS delivers an opportunity to network with your peers away from the stressful challenges of a response and learn from each other, as well as build important relationships with those you may work with during a future incident.
